

LAST EDITION

ONE CENT

WESTERN UNION BLACKLIST EXPOSED — BIG BUSINESS FIGHTS WOMEN — FARSON GIVES
BONDS—PATIENTS SAVED IN DUNNING FIRE

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 4, NO. 167

Chicago, Tuesday, April 13, 1915

398

HOTELKEEPERS AND POLITICIAN ARE ACCUSED IN GIRL'S STORY

State's Attorney's Probe of Conditions on West Side Leads to Warrants for Five Hotelkeepers and 18th Ward Politician—Loop Hotels Said to Be Next on List.

Warrants for five West Side hotels and the arrest of Edward Pinkerton, well known in West Side politics, featured the start of State's Attorney Hoyne's war on hotels against which he has secured stories from young girls.

The hotels hit are the King Edward, 1700 W. Madison; the Florence, 1659 W. Adams; Lincoln, 1902 W. Madison; Decatur, 1859 W. Madison, and Home, 1723 W. Madison. The respective owners of these places, Jos. Friedman, L. C. Pranz, Myrtle Lamar, J. M. Campbell and E. J. Strauss, are charged with not keeping their registers in accordance with the state law.

Hoyne's sudden move was decided upon when Gertrude McCarthy, a young girl who left her home shortly after Christmas, told the police that Edward Pinkerton had forced her onto the streets.

Hoyne placed the case in the hands of Ass't State's Att'y Robert Hogan and a thorough investigation of the girl's story was made. Investigators from Hoyne's office patrolled the West Side district and secured evidence from other young girls which are said to involve men prominent in 18th ward politics. These men will